

HEALER HEART®

Rick Boden was a massage therapist, educator and Massage Envy franchisee who believed self-care to be the foundation for long-term success in a profession that can be physically demanding. This belief led him to develop The Massage Envy brand's Self-Care Commitment, which launched in the Massage Envy franchise network in 2017. Soon after, in collaboration with AMTA, Rick pushed to make the Self-Care Commitment available to all massage therapists and massage therapy students free of charge. AMTA is proud to continue the Rick Boden Healer at Heart Scholarship®. Scholarship funded, in part, by Massage Envy.

How to apply: Applicants must be enrolled in a massage therapy educational program that meets the qualifications for licensure or other authorized practice in the state or province where you reside or will practice, at the time you apply for the scholarship.
